

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PREFACE

THE present Part contains the texts of ninety-seven tablets and four plates of K.K. 4267, 4276; 83-1-18, 1; 83-1-18, 361, reproduced by the collotype process. On many of these texts the name of the scribe has been broken away. No attempt has been made to classify such Letters as this more naturally falls within the province of the commentary. Again few restorations of the text have been attempted as corrections and restorations are reserved for the Part on Textual Notes.

No. 1282 has been published by GEORGE SMITH; No. 1278 by PINCHES; Nos. 1279, 1281, 1283, 1304, 1311 and 1326, have been published by WINCKLER; Nos. 1277, 1280, 1308, 1339, 1367, 1368 and 1369 by WATERMAN, and I am indebted to them for their copies, which were carefully prepared. I have not been able, however, to accept all their readings, and I may also say that I do not expect scholars to accept all mine. Many of these tablets are broken and most difficult to read, and in such it is often impossible to form a connected text. Again there are as many different handwritings as there were scribes. Hence, there will be many places where scholars may differ from my readings. In the final collation of all the Letter texts, I myself hope to be able to decide the reading of many passages, about which there is, to my mind, still some uncertainty.

A few very important texts, which cannot be properly classified as Letters, but which contain information such as we should expect to find in the form of Letters, are included in this Part. Compare BEZOLD'S Catalogue, and WATERMAN in his Chicago Dissertation.

As already stated in Part VI, I am much honoured by the attention shown to this class of literature, and I wish to state again that, as soon as the texts are published, they become public property, and anyone may use them for any purpose he may wish.

This work by my fellow students will in no way interfere with my original plan as described in Part I and again in Part IV, and I see no reason to depart from this plan as outlined twenty-one years ago. Hence I shall continue to publish the texts until the Corpus Epistolarum is completed. Part XIV is in preparation, and it is my hope to bring the remaining texts into Parts XIV, XV and XVI. In Part XVII it is my intention to give the results of a final collation of all the texts published in Parts I–XVI, and to suggest many restorations which I have not included in the texts themselves. In other words, Part XVII will be given to "Textual Notes." Part XVIII will be an Index Volume, giving Lists of all the Proper Names, Officials, Divinities, Countries, Peoples, Cities, etc., found in Parts I–XVI, with references to their British Museum registration numbers and to the numbers which they bear in this Series.

I wish especially to acknowledge my obligations to DR. E. WALLIS BUDGE, the Keeper of the Department of Egyptian and Assyrian Antiquities, British Museum, for his courtesy and for the great assistance which he has afforded me in the preparation of these Parts. I am indebted also to the other members of the Department, MESSRS. KING and HALL, for their unfailing courtesy. To MR. KING and to DR. KLAUBER, who has kindly read proofs of these texts, I am also grateful for suggestions as to the reading of several signs. To my former pupil, DR. LEROY WATERMAN, who has acted as my Literary Secretary during the year, I wish to give credit for his assistance in the copying of texts and in the reading of proofs.

I wish also to express my appreciation to PROFESSOR HARRY PRATT JUDSON, President of the University of Chicago, for the interest which he has shown in this Series, and for the help which he has kindly given me.

To PROFESSOR THE REVEREND A. H. SAYCE, Professor of Assyriology in the University of Oxford, a pioneer in the study of the languages, history and religions of the ancient peoples of Western Asia, I have the honour to dedicate this volume.
